

Make Money with Your Horse While Contributing to Public Safety and Having Fun

Alpha & Omega Mounted Security Patrol is recruiting riders who want to work in 2010 as mounted security officers* at

Coachella Music & Arts Festival, California, April 13 to 18
Stagecoach Country Music Festival, California, April 22 to 25
Bonnaroo Music & Arts Festival, Tennessee, June 7 to 14
Outside Lands Music & Arts Festival, San Francisco, August

Concert list and dates are subject to deletions, additions, or changes.

Join us if you:

- Are a horse enthusiast
- Have your own horse, truck and trailer
- Possess good people skills
- Like music and music fans

To apply, visit www.mountedpatrol.com and complete an online application.

Alpha & Omega is the nation's oldest and largest mounted security patrol, employing both full time and seasonal Trooper units. The part time Trooper units expand during outdoor concert season to patrol music and camping festivals across the country. Riders in the concert patrols enjoy:

- Excellent wages
- Per diem expenses for horse and rider
- Meals provided
- Professional uniforms
- Night safety gear
- Training

Full time employment with benefits

available year-round at The Woodlands Township (Houston), Texas

Questions? Email bsmith@mountedpatrol.com or call 817-379-6607.

* A&O riders will be licensed in the appropriate state for security work, therefore may not have any felonies or crimes of moral turpitude on their records.